

TONGUES SOMEWHAT TIED IN REICHSTAG

Members Are Gravely Called to Order for Making Innocent Observations.

BERLIN, July 19.—The actual power of the German reichstag is so small that scoffers have been known to refer to it as "a glorified debating society." The limitations upon the freedom of speech of the delegates are, however, so great that it may be doubted whether this term is appropriate. For expressions which would not even excite comment in an American legislature speakers are admonished by the president of the reichstag, and for expressing slightly more daring there is a formal call to order. The third call to order for the day was made yesterday.

Every session of the reichstag brings amusing examples of this. At a recent session the Social Democrat Peus was speaking. "The kaiser," he said, "caused to be issued yesterday a decree which is couched in a more moderate tone than was the case in former times." Dr. Kaempf, president of the reichstag, interrupted him thus: "I beg you to cease using such expressions. You must not say that the emperor has become more moderate. That gives occasion for the contrast between moderate and immoderate."

Scheidmann, another Socialist, was speaking of the armament bill. "There is," he said, "no more shameless falsehood than the imputation that the French armament bill was the cause of the German bill being introduced."

"I trust you do not refer to members of this house with your remark about shameless falsehoods," said President Kaempf.

"I had the Spanish parliament in mind when I spoke," said Scheidmann gravely.

A burst of laughter from all parts of the house followed, but Kaempf did not join in it. He listened while Scheidmann finished his speech, and then, a half hour after his former remark, said solemnly:

"You said that you had the Spanish parliament in mind when you spoke of shameless falsehoods. The remark, however, might be construed as referring to the reichstag. I call you to order."

A former president of the former diet once called to order a delegate who had asserted that war "is a reproach upon God." Such an expression, said the president, was an insult to God's great emperor-territories, and particularly to William I.

SHOOTS AS ARCHERS OF CENTURY AGO

Special Cable to The Tribune.
PARIS, July 19.—The longest shot with a bow and arrow since 1794 was made recently when Ingo Simon, a member of the Royal Tophill society, shot an arrow 454 yards and 8 inches, at the annual archery meeting at Le Touquet. His next best shot was two yards shorter.

Mr. Simon used two Turkish bows, made of buffalo horn and antelope sinew, pulling eight pounds and sixty pounds. Both bows were more than 200 years old. The longest distance with a new bow was 235 yards and 7 feet.

OFFICERS GIVE BLOOD
TO SAVE A PRIVATE

Special Cable to The Tribune.
BERLIN, July 19.—A Bavarian army officer at Würzburg have shown commendable self-sacrifice in an effort to save the life of Hermann Frankfurter, a private in the Eleventh Bavarian field artillery regiment. Frankfurter's blood became affected, and the transfusion of blood from a healthy person was recognized as the only way of saving his life.

Seventeen officers of the regiment, ranking from major down to lieutenant, volunteered to supply blood. Lieutenant Dittmar was selected as the first to volunteer. The transfusion was successful and Private Frankfurter is now recovering.

Rheumatism and the Heart.
Don't overlook the grave fact that rheumatism easily "settles in the heart," and disturbs the valvular action. The cure consists in removing the cause. Foley Kidney Pills so tone up and strengthen the kidneys that they keep the blood free of poisons and uric acid crystals, that cause rheumatism, swollen joints, backache, urinary irregularities and disturbed heart action. Try them. Schramm-Johnson, Drugs, "The Never-Substitutors." Five (5) good stores. (Advertisement.)

PETRIFIED MAN IS SUBJECT OF AUCTION

Special Cable to The Tribune.
PARIS, July 19.—A petrified man was sold at auction in Paris recently. The man lived some thousands of years ago in Patagonia. He was about 6 feet 6 inches in height. Though he is a stone statue, the body bears traces of two deep wounds. It is supposed that the man was killed and his body was slowly changed to stone by the action of water, charged with lime salts.

BOOKS OF BALFOUR
POPULAR IN LONDON

Special Cable to The Tribune.
LONDON, July 19.—The books of Arthur Balfour, former prime minister, are among the most widely read in London. At the annual general meeting of the London library, over which Mr. Balfour presided, the Hon. Evan Charteris said that he had inquired at the library on numerous occasions for books written by Mr. Balfour, and was constantly told that they were "out." After waiting for some time and still being unable to secure the books at the library, he purchased a set for himself and recommended it to another set be purchased for use in the library, as many others had had his experience in being told that the books were out.

For Cuts, Burns and Bruises.
In every home there should be a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, ready to apply in every case of burns, cuts, wounds or scalds. J. H. Polanco, Del. Valle, Tex., R. No. 2, writes: "Bucklen's Arnica Salve saved my little girl's cut foot. No one believed it could be cured." The world's best salve. Only 25c. Recommended by Schramm-Johnson, Drugs, "The Never-Substitutors." Five (5) good stores. (Advertisement.)
